Hearst Issues Statement Declaring He Has Been Elected Mayor

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Election day came to a close with a dramatic scene at the Hoffman House, where William R. Hearst gathered his friends and advisers around him and began the preparation of his legal contest of the returns which indicated the success of his Democratic opponent, McClellan.

As the late votes came in, showing McClellan only a few thousand ahead, and as it was noticed that figures from some of the East Side districts were missing, Mr. Hearst said he believed he was being cheated out of a hard fought and honestly won victory, and announced his intention to make a contest in the courts.

LAW COMMITTEE

He sent out a call at once for the members of the law committee of the Municipal Ownership League, and soon they began to arrive, many of them in evening clothes, they having been found at social gatherings or at the theaters. At the hotel waiting for the lawyers were scores of Hearst voters with stories of violence and outrage at polling places where they had gone to cast their ballots. Men were coming into the hotel constantly with bruised and bleeding faces. One man had his arm broken and another's head was cut so badly that Mr. Hearst had him put to bed in the hotel. Reports were brought in telling of a man having had his eye gouged out and of a Hearst man whose fingers had been chewed off in a polling place.

HEARST'S STATEMENT.

After considering the situation fully, Mr. Hearst gave out the following statement, which is repeated today in his newspaper, the Evening Journal:

* "WE HAVE WON THIS ELECTION BY MANY THOUSANDS OF VOTES."
* "I SHALL FIGHT THIS BATTLE TO THE END, IN BEHALF OF THE MEN WHO HAVE CAST THEIR VOTES FOR ME, AND WHO SHALL NOT BE DISFRANCHISED BY ANY EFFORT OF CRIMINAL BOSSSES."
* "WM RANDOLPH HEARST"

WILLIAM R. HEARST, who will contest McClellan's claim to the office of Mayor of New York

WE HAVE WON THE ELECTION BY MANY THOUSANDS OF VOTES. I SHALL FIGHT THIS BATTLE TO THE END, IN BEHALF OF THE MEN WHO HAVE CAST THEIR VOTES FOR ME, AND WHO SHALL NOT BE DISFRANCHISED BY ANY EFFORT OF CRIMINAL BOSSSES. WM RANDOLPH HEARST

The Evening Journal also prints a notice that bets on the Mayoralty should not be paid, declaring that the official count will show Hearst elected.

THE RECOUNT.

Mr. Hearst, in making his contest, may demand that each of the 1,948 ballot boxes used in the election be brought before the board of election and a count of the ballots made by that body. Then if dissatisfied, Mr. Hearst may throw the whole matter into the courts for decision and if that is done the battle probably will be a long and intricate one.

In addition to the proceedings before the aldermen and the regular contest in the courts, Mr. Hearst may, of course, bring to the attention of the authorities each individual case of fraud and violence that may be discovered.

DEMOCRATS LOSE.

Although McClellan, on the face of the complete, but unofficial returns, was elected by a plurality of 3,485, the Democrats lost heavily in yesterday's contest. The election of William T. Jerome, independent, as District Attorney is a severe blow to the Tammany organization, which exerted all the force at its command to defeat him. His victory is remarkable when it is consid-

Bird Coler Says Editor Accused Boodler Did Not is Elected by 10,000 Plurality.

NEW YORK, November 8.—Whether George B. McClellan or William R. Hearst is to be the next Mayor of New York City must be decided by the courts. Full returns from every election district give McClellan a plurality of 3,485, but this is so small—only a little more than one half of one per cent of the vote cast—that a re-count and re-inspection of the ballots might easily sweep it away and show Hearst the winner. Indignant at what he believed to be suspicious holding back of returns last night and roused to a passionate resentment by stories of violence and outrage at the polls told at his headquarters by scores of his followers, Mr. Hearst refused to admit defeat, and declared that he would see that every man that voted for him got a fair count of his vote. In his demand for a recount Mr. Hearst is supported by District Attorney William T. Jerome, himself victorious in his single-handed fight against the great Tammany machine. Mr. Jerome said today:

"I SHALL IMMEDIATELY INSTITUTE AN INVESTIGATION OF THE FRAUDS PERPETRATED BY TAMMANY AT THE POLLS YES-TERDAY. IF THE FACTS WARRANT I SHALL BEGIN AN IMMEDIATE PROSECUTION AGAINST THOSE GUILTY OF CRIME."

Bird S. Coler, elected president of the Borough of Brooklyn on the Municipal Ownership ticket, also supports Mr. Hearst's contention that he was rightfully elected. Mr. Coler said:

"MR. HEARST HAS BEEN ELECTED BY 10,000 VOTES. HE HAS BEEN CHEATED BY THE TREMENDOUS FRAUDS OF TAMMANY HALL. THERE IS NO DOUBT WHATEVER OF HIS ELECTION. I SHALL WORK NIGHT AND DAY TO SEE THAT JUSTICE IS DONE."

JOHNSON'S STORY.

Attorney Grove L. Johnson, of counsel for Wright, informed the court that he knew absolutely nothing about Wright, save that Partridge and Jacobs, of counsel, had informed him that Wright several days ago had gone to San Francisco to look for witnesses in his case. Johnson said he knew nothing about Wright's flight until informed of it by a reporter yesterday afternoon. He telephoned to Partridge at San Jose, and the latter said he had heard of the rumor, but could not verify it.

District Attorney A. M. Seymour then read the sections of the codes bearing upon the forfeiture of bonds and bail in criminal cases and asked that Wright's bail be declared forfeited.

FIREMEN BATTLE TO SAVE LIVES

Several People Rescued in the Nick of Time From a Four Story Burning Building.

SAN FRANCISCO, NOV. 8.—A FOUR-STORY BUILDING ON CONVERSE STREET, OCCUPIED BY FIVE FAMILIES, WAS DESTROYED BY FIRE LATE LAST NIGHT.

SEVERAL PERSONS WERE RESCUED BY FIREMEN AT THE RISK OF THEIR OWN LIVES.

ROBERT HARRINGTON, OF ENGINE COMPANY 10, WAS SERIOUSLY INJURED WHILE CARRYING A WOMAN BY FALLING FROM THE THIRD FLOOR, BUT THE WOMAN WAS CAUGHT BY FIREMAN JOHN NYLAND AND WAS UNHURT.

AN ADJOINING STABLE WAS ALSO BURNED AND EIGHT HORSES PERISHED IN THE FLAMES. THE FINANCIAL LOSS IS NOT OVER $10,000.

JEROME WILL SEE HEARST GETS FAIR COUNT

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—District Attorney Jerome announced today that he will do all he can to see that there is a fair count of the vote for Mayor. He gave orders to his assistants that the returns from the Eighteenth and Sixtieth Assembly districts be guarded carefully. Tammany leader Charles F. Murphy is leader of the Eighteenth and Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan is leader of the Sixtieth district. Mr. Jerome said

"Take these returns from the Eighteenth and Sixtieth Assembly districts and lock them up. Guard them carefully. They may cut a big figure in this count. I propose to see that there is a fair count in this Mayoralty contest, no matter whom it hurts."

ALL BETS ON McCLELLAN ARE HELD UP

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—In the commercial district practically all bets made on McClellan will be held up pending developments. Conservative estimates made the amount wagered on McClellan at no less than $200,000, while probably half that much was bet on Jerome. A few Jerome bets were cashed this morning but the stakeholders have decided not to pay the bulk of the Jerome money until the official count is in. Bets on McClellan may be held up indefinitely, or at least until the courts decide the contest. A broker today offered to bet $1,000 that the official recount would show that Hearst had been elected Mayor.

the court be deferred till to-morrow, to give Wright a chance to appear, if he is in the State. Some mistake as to the day of the trial may have been made by Wright, Johnson urged. Judge Hart said the court has the power to set aside an order for forfeiture within twenty days of its entry, and should Wright appear within the twenty days he could easily set aside the order asked for by Seymour.

The court then directed that an order be entered declaring Wright's bond forfeited and for the present the Wright case is a closed incident, from its legal aspect.

FRENCH'S CASE.

The case of former Senator Frank French, accused of bootlegging with Wright, Bunkers and Emmons, was continued to December 18th, neither side being prepared to go to trial.

NEW YORK'S VOTE FOR MAYOR

THE TRIBUNE PRINTED THE NEWS FIRST

WITNESS CHARGES BROTHER WITH BLACKMAIL.

Deep Hatred of Two Young Men is Brought Out at Trial of Suit.

With hatred in his answers for his brother, August Mangin, who was left an estate valued at $20,000 by his father, while his younger brother was left nothing, took the stand this morning in defense of the will his father left bequeathing him the property, and which Eugene Mangin, the younger brother, is now trying to have set aside.

He pronounced the suit a blackmail one several times during his examination, and roused the ire of Attorney Carl Abbott by his discourteous replies.

Mangin was called to the stand by Attorneys Abbott and J. J. McDonald, representing the younger brother, for the purpose of finding out from him what had become of a certain book in which he had written a family history of his father, mother, brother and himself.

It was stated by counsel for the younger brother, that what was written in the book concerning Eugene was of an uncomplimentary character, and would show that August was hostile to his brother long prior to his father's death, and would tend to strengthen their position that he influenced the father in making the will.

August Mangin, however, said that he only ceased to love his brother when he would come home drunk and abuse his father. He also stated that he did not know where the book was; that he had written the book more as a composition than anything else, and he thinks he remembers seeing it about the time of his father's death. He however, stated that he does not know what has become of it; that he cannot find it and that he does not remember destroying it.

It was in probing him upon this subject that Attorney Abbott precipitated the alteration, and in this connection the following dialogue occurred:

Q. Your memory is not as good upon the subject of this book as it is on other matters concerned with this case, is it?

A. My memory is quite as good as yours, I think, and I have told that I do not know where it is.

Attorney Abbott—Your Honor, I object to the answer of this witness.

Attorney Cary Howard—He brought the answer out himself.

Judge Ogden—Take your answer, gentlemen. If the witness oversteps the bounds, I will instruct him.

Q. When do you say that you saw the book last?

A. I think it was the time of my father's death.

Q. Was your brother there at the time?

A. No, the beautiful plaintiff in this action had not arrived home. He got there the day after the funeral and tried to blackmail me out of about $7,000.

Q. You were not afraid of his getting the book, were you?

A. No; I am not afraid of him, or you, or the blackmailing action you have brought.

Attorney Abbott—Your Honor, this witness seems determined upon insulating counsel.

Judge Ogden—As I have stated, I will instruct the witness when I think he oversteps the bounds. Take your answers.

Q. By "the beautiful plaintiff in this case," I presume you mean your brother?

A. Yes.

The questioning in regard to the book stopped at this time, and the witness was excused, as he had been put on the stand out of order for the purpose of locating the book.

The two brothers who are parties to this action are young men, both probably being little more than of legal age. The younger, however, is of a different temperament than the elder one, and takes a less serious view of life, and while the older one stayed home with his father, the younger one indulged in life's frivolities to the extent of being arrested on one occasion, and the imbibing of liquors, which finally led to a rupture in the family and caused him to go to sea.

BERKELEY, November 8.—Public Administrator Gray of Alameda county today took charge of the effects of Milton Franklin Andrew, who killed himself in San Francisco Monday night after murdering his woman companion.

Andrews left a cabin in the center of Alameda last Saturday containing suits of clothing, fancy vests and much of the woman's clothing, which is of the best quality, valued by Marshal Vollmer at $1200. All has been claimed by his widow, Mrs. Andrew, Andrews' chamber trunk and suit cases.

Ellis claims that he was robbed of $600 by Andrews and believes that he has a right to the property that Andrews left him. He has not yet got the money stolen from him. He has put his claim in the hands of an attorney.

It is apparent that there will be a conflict between Ellis and the Public Administrator over the possession of these goods.

For some days past the stocks of local traction and other corporations doing business on municipal franchises were somewhat nervous on the presumption that the municipal ticket might succeed. It was expected that these stocks would be strong on today's market in view of McClellan's re-election, but this expectation was not realized in full. Consolidated Gas and Metropolitan Street Railway opened a point or so higher than Monday's closing, but immediately began to sell off on a feeling that the Hearst representation on the Board of Estimate will necessarily have an effect on future franchises. Metropolitan opened at 125 1-2 to 125 and quickly declined to 122 1-2. Metropolitan seemed to be vulnerable on the argument that the company's plans for subway lines may be interfered with through the municipal ownership influence in the Board of Estimate.

ALLEGED ORIENTAL "MASHER" FINDS CHAMPION IN MISSIONARY.

The case of George Hayashi, accused of being a Japanese "masher," was continued one week by Police Judge Samuels this morning. He is accused of having tried to force his attentions on Mrs. Alice Flannigan. He was first knocked down and then arrested by Policeman Keefe. Miss Dilie, a woman devoted to the christening of the Japanese, appeared as a spectator. When Flannigan was asked if she was positive that "this good boy had never been insulting and he should be let go,"

"Well, you hold up your hand and swear to the goddess," said Samuels. "No," replied Miss Dilie.

"Well, Mrs. Flannigan has sworn to the fact that Hayashi did insult her. Besides, the defendant has pleaded guilty. We will continue the case a week."

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Is Confidential,
Free, and always Helpful*

FIRST—That almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, displacements of the uterus, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

SECOND—The medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can.

THIRD—For thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, curing backache, nervousness, kidney trouble, alluterine and ovarian inflammation, weakness and displacements regulating menstruation perfectly and overcoming its pains. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the change of life.

FOURTH—The great volume of unequalled and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

NEW ROOMS FOR ALDEN LIBRARY

It was announced at the meeting of the Library Trustees held last night that the Alder reading room would be retained in its new quarters within a few days. Owing to the fact that the room where the library had been installed for the past year or so has been leased and a saloon to be put in its place, it became necessary for the Library Trustees to look for another room. Some difficulty was experienced in finding a suitable place. This was finally solved by the erection of a two story building three doors below the present reading room and the lower floor was secured by the trustees. Librarian Charles S. Greene informed his trustees that the board of trustees had voted to follow the lead of the number of borrowers October 6, 1905, was 1400, the number of books in circulation for the past month was 1838, and that there were 23 new books added to the collection.

At the meeting of the directors of the Merchants' Exchange last night several of the directors expressed apprehension as to the future disposition of the Alameda County exhibit at the Portland Exposition. The exhibit has been shipped and will probably arrive in this city to day. The members of the Exchange were confident from the beginning that their organization would finally be given entire custody of the exhibit. Later developments show, however, that the Board of Supervisors is not disposed to give up entire control over the exhibit and the Merchants' Exchange stands but an equal chance with similar other organizations or obtaining charge of the coveted display of Alameda county's fruits and other products.

W. H. Walker when called upon for his report as an Alameda county commissioner said Mr. Walker and myself appeared before the Board of Supervisors yesterday morning and were told that the two commissioners were to be allowed to retain charge of the exhibit subject to the instructions of the board itself.

There seems to be a mistaken idea among some members and directors of the Merchants' Exchange that they, in view of the fact that the commissioners are also directors of this body, have a say in the final disposition of the exhibit.

Councilman McAdam introduced a resolution in the City Council last Monday night asking the Board to take summary measures. It was passed and this morning the desired action was taken.

On the 28th instant the Board of Supervisors passed the resolution directing that the work be vacated by the Board of Supervisors.

Directed Secretary Flawcott to the firm to clean up the park and also plow it after the first rains in accordance with promises heretofore made.

MINOR MATTERS.

The Board granted the application of the Independent Square Improvement Club for a fire alarm box on Eleventh avenue and East Sixteenth street.

The report of the City Electrician on placing an electric light at Seventeenth avenue and East Twenty-first street was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The Board directed the secretary to advertise for bids for constructing a rip-rap stone wall along the Harrison Boulevard.

George Stappies was granted permission to move a one story house from Franklin street between Pearl and Campbell street to the city limits near Fifty-second street.

The petition of John W. Gray for an electric light at Eighth and Linden streets was granted.

The application of the City Electrician to the removal of the light at the northwest corner of Fifty-eighth and Idaho street to the northeast corner of the same streets was granted.

C. Blome 318 Clay street, E. Bishop 466 Tenth street, Orr & Broadbent 661 Webster street were granted permission to maintain steam boilers at the places designated.

WILL NOT JOIN THE NEW ORGANIZATION

It developed at the meeting of the directors of the Merchants' Exchange last night that not a single director had signed the agreement to become a member of the proposed Chamber of Commerce. Several of the members made short addresses during the meeting as to their stand in the matter. They all agreed that the Merchants' Exchange was a necessity in Oakland from a commercial standpoint, and that although no opposition would be made to the formation of a Chamber of Commerce, the Exchange will preserve its individuality as an organization devoted to the betterment and improvement of the city.

In the matter of the formation of the Chamber of Commerce, Director Jonas said in the matter: "We do not claim that the Board of Trade is not working for the general good, but we claim that the Merchants' Exchange is distinctly an organization for the benefit of the merchants and manufacturers and cannot be displaced by any central organization. While it is true that we need a central organization, it is further the best interests on this side of the bay it is also true that we need an organization exclusively for the merchants and manufacturers."

"We don't want to quarrel with anybody and should heartily endorse any new move for the uplift of the city, yet the Merchants' Exchange must retain its individuality."

President Schlueter also spoke on the subject presenting views much the same.

John Verrykin joined the Cigar Makers' International Union in November 1904. He has been a member in good standing ever since and was admitted into the Local Union on March 6, 1905. He was a quiet, law-abiding, good natured subject, always ready to assist his fellowmen and a man of moderate habits. John Verrykin was 65 years old and worked at his trade up to a few days of his death. Although he had for some time been suffering from a complication of diseases, he did not care to take advantage of the benefits he was entitled to, but tried to earn an independent living up to the last. Cigarmakers' Local No. 734 of Oakland realizes that they have lost one of their best members who were interred in their last resting place at Mountain View cemetery by his fellow craftsmen and friends.

THE LATEST NEWS OF THE DAY--4:30 P. M.

HENRY BEFORE THE JURY

MAYOR SCHMITZ TALKS

Tells the Censors What Successful Candidate Says People Stand for Fair Play

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—At a political meeting last Saturday night Francis J. Heney, the Government attorney who recently prosecuted the land fraud cases in Oregon, stated that he personally knew Abraham Reuf, legal adviser of Mayor Schmitz to be corrupt.

He was immediately challenged to prove his assertion and as a result he appealed to the censors. He did so and just before that body adjourned a short time after which he took a train for Washington. Neither he nor members of the party have made public the results of the interview.

Mr. Heney had made arrangements to go East this morning. He declared that he expected to be gone about six weeks and when he returned he would endeavor to make good the public charges he made against Abe Reuf.

He said that he was relying upon information that brought the data to him almost first hand but he believed it to be true and would later undertake to prove the charges.

CONCERNING OIL ON ROADS

FIVE KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

LOS ANGELES, November 8.—Judge Weibon of the United States Court has filed a suit against the California Oil and Gas Roads Company against the city of Redlands which concerns the entire State of California wherever oil is used on the public highways. The suit was to establish certain rights to the process of oil wells and roads had been in the courts for three years.

Exhibit and been gathered in every state of the nation and in Pennsylvania, from which comes reports which condemn the use of oil on roads in other countries.

Judge Weibon, in his oral opinion delivered from the bench, said: "The use of asphaltic oil is to my mind overwhelming and satisfies me beyond a reasonable doubt that there was such a use not only in one but in many instances. The oil must stand by virtue of its own strength still, where so many instances are testifies to by truthful witnesses, all together do remove from the question of improbability."

What I have said with reference to the evidence establishing a prior use, of course goes to the defense of lack of novelty also."

For these reasons just indicated, I am of opinion, and so hold the defendants are entitled to judgment in the case, and judgment will be so ordered."

DEMOCRAT STILL IN LEAD

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—On the face of the returns which are not contested, Paul Barth, Democratic nominee for Mayor, has been elected by about 2500. There are a number of predictions in which the supporters of Joseph J. O'Neal, Fusion candidate, claim no election was held and in others the ballots are alleged to have been stolen.

The status of the Legislature today appears:

Senate—Democrats 31, Republicans 6, doubtful 2.

House—Democrats 79, Republicans 14, doubtful 7.

These bodies will elect a successor to Senator Blackburn, whose place is contested for by former Judge of the Court of Appeals Payne.

MILLION DOLLARS WAS USED TO BEAT W. R. HEARST AT THE POLLS

Republican Candidate Declares Gross Frauds Were Committed—Thirty Thousand Hearst Followers Were Disfranchised.

NEW YORK, November 8.—It was announced at the Hearst headquarters today that the contest over the office of Mayor would be taken at once to the courts over the heads of the County of Canvassers.

It was also said that evidence could be introduced upon which about 1,000 election officers could be sent to prison and that at least 30,000 Hearst followers when they went to the polls found their names had been voted on by others.

William M. Ivins, the defeated Republican candidate for Mayor, warmly commended Mr. Hearst's preparations to demand a recount of yesterday's election returns.

MILLION DOLLARS USED.

"Tammany had at their command not less than a million dollars, and I believe that every purchasable voter was purchased," said Mr. Ivins. "The shamelessness with which Tammany Hall taxed the civil servants and drew upon resources of Wall street has never been surpassed.

CORRUPT VOTE.

"One of the marked features of yesterday's election was the breaking down, through the use him or his ticket, who, indeed, of money by Tammany Hall of day before yesterday were talking about 'anarchy,' came to the Hearst election machinery. If Mr. Hearst had had a good working organization behind him he would have been overwhelmingly elected. Mr. Hearst and Mr. Jerome have a great work to cut out for them. Whether a man differs with Mr. Hearst or not is a very immaterial matter as compared with the necessity of preserving the purity of our elections, and in his efforts for that Mr. Hearst's vote is indicative of profound and very largely justifiable indignation.

"I feel sure," Mr. Ivins declared, "that if it were possible to eliminate Tammany Hall's corrupted vote, Mr. Hearst would lead the poll."

That the city is profoundly stirred today by the charges of fraud and the manner in which returns were brought in last night may be judged from the following extract from the Evening Post, which paper opposed Hearst throughout the campaign:

ALAMEDA TO SAIL IN DECEMBER

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—The Oceanic Steamship Company's liner Alameda will sail for Honolulu December 2, with all trace of her experience on the Fort Point rocks obliterated and her hull and machinery in better condition than ever. She was the best little liner on the Pacific before her misadventure. When she goes into commission again she will be just a little better than she was before.

She came off the Hunter's Point drydock on Monday. In replacing Alameda the Union Iron Works is said to have established a record which could not be bettered in the United States. Forty-seven plates in the liner's hull were removed and replaced by new ones. Forty other plates were dealt with. There was other work done and the Alameda was on the drydock only thirteen days. Superintendent of Shipbuilding William Donald had personal charge of the work for the Union Iron Works and to him is due credit for the good progress.

A new labor union of carpenters has been formed at Pinole, District Organizer John F. Hogan of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America and Secretary N. L. Wandel of Carpenters' Union No. 22, organized the new local, which will be known as Carpenters' Union No. 1142. It already has a charter membership of twenty-five, with a prospect of more in the near future. The following officers were elected: President J. W. Townes, vice-president, G. A. HEAVY
LOSS TO CHRONICLE

Damages by Fire Last Night Will Amount
to $150,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—An estimate made today of the damage done to the Chronicle building by fire and water last night places the total loss at not less than $150,000, partly covered by insurance.

The clock tower, near which the flames started from fireworks, was ruined, and the upper floor was practically gutted, but the energetic efforts of the firemen saved the library and the many linotype machines and other machinery in the composing and stereotyping departments of the paper.

The presses in the basement were uninjured, though flooded with water. The Weekly Chronicle is being prepared today from the old office, though the men are working under many difficulties.

The daily edition, which this morning was printed on the Examiner presses, will be issued tomorrow from its own office.

The plant of the Chronicle is regarded as one of the most complete of its kind in America.

It could not be duplicated, as over twenty years have been occupied in the collection and compilation of the contents.

It sustained only slight injuries, owing to the fact that the building is of modern construction.

This is a very pleasant performance and has been well patronized by the ladies who find it quite a new and novel attraction. Crowd of 5,000 Infuriated People Nearly Kill Him.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 8.—Ell Wright is not in Sacramento and nobody here knows where he is. His trial on a charge of boodling is set for tomorrow and he has $2,500 cash bail on deposit. It is believed here that he will not appear tomorrow. Grove L. Johnson, who put up the money for him, said tonight that he does not know anything of the whereabouts of Wright and that Wright's attorneys in San Jose telephoned today that they had not heard of him for several days. District Attorney Seymour says he knows nothing of Wright's movements. Wright's lawyers from San Jose were expected tonight, but they did not come.

THEORIES ABOUT FOOD

Also a Few Facts on the Same Subject.

We hear much nowadays about health foods and hygienic living, about vegetarianism, and many other fads along the same line.

Restaurants may be found in the larger cities where no meat, pastry or coffee is served and the food crank is in his glory, and arguments and theories galore advanced to prove that meat was never intended for human stomach, and almost make us believe that our sturdy ancestors, who lived four-score years in robust health on raw meat, pork and mutton must have been grossly ignorant of the laws of health.

Our forefathers had other things to do than formulate theories about the food they ate. A warm welcome was extended to any kind, from bacon to oysters.

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best.

As compared with grains and vegetables, meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than any other grains.

Dr. Julius Reinmann on this subject says: "Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality should eat meat and plenty of it. If the digestion is too feeble at first it may be easily corrected by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three hours, and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they help the stomach and digestives necessary to perfect digestion, and every form of indigestion will be overcome by their use."

TO PRODUCE OPERA AT FRUITVALE

"The Rescue of Red Riding Hood," a new and interesting operetta, will be presented by Miss C. M. Archibald at Upper Fruitvale Hall Friday evening, November 10, and Saturday afternoon, November 11.

The music is written by J. Astor Broad, an eastern man, the author of the popular cantata, "Ruth, the Moabitess." Miss Archibald has secured thirty juvenile voices to produce the opera and as she understands the training of children it will probably be a most successful affair.

The following is the cast: Red Riding Hood—Ruth Macdonald Mama—Vera Aymar Hugh (woodman)—Alvin Theodo Louis (woodman)—Stuart Cops Wolf—Met Macdonald Robin and Donald (playmates)—Charlie Griffin, Raymond Lundy Buttercup—Alice Macdonald Rose—Semi-Childs of the Ballet—Alice Jasper, Hazel Clark, Alice Clark, Alta Cops, Elsie—Frankie Hite Grandma—Edith Griffin Full chorus of merry children—Elsie Clark, Elsie Griffin, Alva Dunakin, Viola Bowman, Freda Itmar, Virginia Richardson, Clarence Aymar, Herman Bedig, Freeman Swift, Willie Reese, Babes—Ruth Tedford, Alta Cops, Sondra McKinley.

CHICAGO'S COMPLETE RETURNS

Republicans Sweep City, Electing Every Candidate.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The Republicans swept Chicago yesterday, electing every candidate on their ticket. The complete returns early today show the following figures:

Judge Superior Court: Gary, Republican, 98,038; McEwan, Republican, 90,922; Ball, Republican, 91,835; Kavanaugh, Republican, 100,848; Ramsey, Democrat, 71,227; Smeal, Democrat, 65,263; Shepard, Democrat, 78,522; Werner, Democrat, 68,594.

Judge Superior Court to fill vacancy: Smith, Republican, 88,748; Tolman, Democrat, 81,718.

Judge Circuit Court: Pinckney, Republican, 88,218; Doyle, Democrat, 77,439.

In the vote for trustees of the Sanitary District, McCormick, the highest man on the Republican ticket, received 86,643 votes, against 80,877 for Webb, the highest man on the Democratic ticket. Baker, the low man on the Republican ticket, received in the city 2,258 more votes than Webb, the high man on the Democratic ticket.

VOTING MACHINES.

The Chicago record for speedy election returns was established yesterday as a result of the use of the voting machines in ten precincts, the results from one of these precincts being received over the telephone by the election commissioners within thirty seconds of the closing of the polls. The returns from the other precincts where voting machines were used also came in with much rapidity, all being in within twenty-nine minutes after the closing of the polls, and returns from five voting machine precincts being received before one return came in from an old system precinct.

The test was the first thoroughly comprehensive one to which the voting machine has been submitted in Chicago. Much satisfaction was expressed by both voters and the officials at the polling places where the machines stood, it being found that votes were cast with rapidity.

PEOPLE WANT THE UTILITIES

MAYOR DUNNE POINTS TO ELECTION AS INDICATIVE OF THIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Mayor Dunne professed more interest in New York's election than in the battle of the ballots in his own city. He said last night:

"Whether Mr. Hearst was elected or defeated, the issue was so close that it demonstrates the tremendous hold which the Municipal Ownership sentiment has upon the people of this country."

"There was no acute situation in New York as there was in Chicago arising from the fact that the franchises for public utilities had expired in this city. In Chicago we have been giving scandalously independent service from the companies whose franchises have expired. In New York no such situation exists. The situation there was not so acute as to excite the people, and the result is a wonderful proof of the widespread sentiment that municipal ownership of public utilities must soon be adopted."

Without warning, Edwards plunged the knife into Grant's neck. Grant fell to the sidewalk, and in an instant was unconscious. A moment later an infuriated crowd fell upon the negro, who was nearly dead when the police arrived.

The Result in San Francisco

Fusion, confusion and defeat; defeat, overwhelmingly, crushing, complete—that is the story of the election in San Francisco.

Eugene E. Schmitz has been re-elected Mayor by a majority so sweeping and decisive as to leave no room for cavil as to its being a valid expression of popular sentiment. It is idle to say that this was accomplished by criminal means or criminal design. It is nonsense to call it a victory for the forces of disorder and graft. The integrity of 40,000 voters, distributed all over the city among all classes, cannot be impeached by a charge which refutes itself.

That the result was due to a popular movement widespread and spontaneous is evidenced by the election of every man on the ticket with Schmitz by an average plurality of 10,000. Nothing like it ever occurred in the history of San Francisco. The returns themselves emphatically contradict the foolish assertion that the result is a red light triumph. The 40,000 men who voted for Schmitz and his associates had no intention of endorsing and perpetuating graft. Let that be understood and admitted at once. They may have made a mistake—that is a matter of individual opinion—but the verdict is an honest one rendered with an honest intent.

No sensible man can believe otherwise after studying the returns. The Fusion ticket was composed of clean, capable men, for the most part tried in office and comparatively well known, they were supported by the press, the pulpit, the Citizens' Alliance, the Merchants' Association, and the well organized machines of both the regular political parties; they were backed by the great majority of the practical politicians of the city; their campaign was financed with abundant means; never was there a stronger array of effective speakers on the stump advocating a single ticket.

And what is the result?

Rout, absolute, irretrievable. Both the party machines were smashed and broken to pieces in the ground swell of popular sentiment. The voters would not endorse the bargain struck by the leaders of the National parties; they demanded proof to substantiate the charges hurled from stump and pulpit, through the press and from the Grand Jury room, at the executive departments of the municipal administration; they resented the preaching of partisan political sermons from pulpits; they objected to a campaign of personal abuse. They declined to accept the issue as one solely between decency and indecency. They rebuked the affront to the principles of justice and fair play exemplified in a Grand Jury resolving itself into a partisan campaign committee.

The experience should be instructive. It has caused the defeat of a number of high-minded, efficient officials and involved the local party organizations in disaster. It is a sore lesson that should be learned in sadness and profited by with wisdom. A dog can be given a bad name and killed therefor, but the rule will not work in politics. The people will not stand for it.

Mr. Abraham Ruef can well lay his hand on his heart and say to the voters of San Francisco: "Gentlemen, this is indeed an unexpected pleasure."

Wonder if Bourke Cockran still thinks Hearst's candidacy a joke.

A house divided against itself cannot stand. We have Holy Grail for that. Likewise the returns from the Ohio election. Governor Herrick, who carried the State two years ago by a plurality exceeding 115,000, fails to pull through this time. It is easy to discern the reason therefor. The local Republican leaders antagonized the leading feature of the President's domestic policy and the Democrats ranged themselves in its support. Senator Foraker, who led off for the State administration, sounded a note on railroad rate legislation that was sharply challenged by Secretary Taft, speaking for the National Administration. In giving the views of the Federal Administration, the Secretary of War took occasion to denounce the Cox machine ticket in Cincinnati. This helped Herrick in the rural districts, but it was disastrous to the Republican ticket in Cincinnati. Cox was overthrown and Herrick is defeated by a stiff plurality. Had the State machine and Herrick stood squarely for the President's policy, the majority for the Republican ticket would probably have approximated 100,000. But a party facing both ways neither commands nor receives public confidence.

Says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch: "Mr. Roosevelt is the first President who has been absent from American soil. The Canadians may take a hint from this and invite him over." Andrew Johnson crossed over the bridge at Niagara Falls and stepped on Canadian soil when he was President.

Our esteemed (and traveled) contemporary finds fault with the length and breadth of THE TRIBUNE'S editorials. But think of the depth, brother, think of the depth—and weep with envy. Then curse fate that you are stranded in the shallows of Alameda journalism.

"Prince Louis of Battenberg does not know what he has missed by not coming to Baltimore," says the Baltimore Sun. Horse and horse. Think what Baltimore has escaped by his failure to come.

Senator Morgan of Alabama has come out against the railroad rate legislation proposed by the President. His objections are Constitutional. Senator Morgan is noted as a constitutional objector. He seems to have been built that way.

Results have again proved that when it comes to actual balloting Tammany can do up straw voting in a walk.

The Democracy, as a party organization, is a pretty weak affair, but the elections yesterday demonstrated that the real, unadulterated article of democracy is very much alive and doing business with a rush. The scribes and Pharisees got hit hard. When ho! polio gets on the rampage there is always something doing. There was plenty yesterday, all the way from Coney Island to North Beach.

The vote yesterday shows that Massachusetts is becoming a lose, if not a doubtful, State. The Republican ticket was successful, but it had a hard fight to win, and the nominee for Lieutenant-governor narrowly escaped defeat, running 20,000 behind the gubernatorial candidate. As this slump in his vote was due to opposition to his high tariff views it is significant. His opponent, a brother of former Secretary Whitelock, would undoubtedly have been elected but for his corporation affiliations and his questionable record as a lobbyist in relation thereto.

Hearst's Vote in New York

The indications are that on a fair vote and a fair count William Randolph Hearst has been elected Mayor of Greater New York. On the face of the returns McClellan has a plurality of about 3,000. But this narrow margin appears to be the result of cheating at the polls and collusion between the bosses of Tammany Hall and the Republican machine. There was also extensive bribing and intimidation of Hearst workers, and many Hearst ballots were thrown out by the precinct canvassing boards. At the last moment the Republican leaders switched as many votes as they could from Ivins to McClellan. These methods have apparently re-elected McClellan by a plurality so narrow as to be of itself suspicious.

The result is a personal triumph for Mr. Hearst, of which he may well be proud. It is a proof of his popularity so stunning that it must be convincing to the most skeptical. It shows that Mr. Hearst is strong with the masses in an inverse ratio to his unpopularity with the machine politicians.

He carried Brooklyn—the City of Churches—by over 15,000 plurality—a striking evidence of how near he has crept to the hearts of the plain people.

In Manhattan and the Bronx—the strongholds of Tammany—he would have overthrown the ancient political organization moulded by Aaron Burr but for the assistance Boss Murphy was able to call in his extremity from the Republican bosses. This was a display of personal power with the voters that will open the eyes of the country at large and command for Hearst henceforth a more respectful consideration than has hitherto been accorded to him by party leaders and party organs.

Moreover, it is an emphatic rebuke to the indiscernible personal abuse—the vindictive, malicious assaults on his private character—leveled at him by newspapers and public men who ought to feel ashamed of themselves. The vote demonstrates that he is at the head of a compelling movement that, bursting through the bonds of party restraint and the jugglery of machine politics, will be heard and respected.

A man capable of making so magnificent a showing against odds so tremendous and political power so entrenched can neither be laughed nor cried down. The office of Mayor of New York is nothing to him, but the testimonial he has received from the citizens of the metropolis is an honor to be highly prized and won with just pride.

The reformers of Philadelphia seem to have put it all over the machine in doing rough-house politics. They not only practiced every trick they charged on their opponents, but added the spice of variety, by introducing a few new ones into the games. The man who stood against the wave of reform was lucky if he didn't get his head broken or land in jail. Civic righteousness is sometimes compelled to use drastic measures with the unregenerate.

Mr. Partridge ought to move to make it unanimous.

Boss Cox of Cincinnati says he is out of politics. So are a lot of bosses in San Francisco, though they are not so prompt to acknowledge it. At any rate, they are out of business.

Gavin McNab kept under cover during the entire campaign. The day after election finds him still under cover.

Machine voting seems to be disastrous to machine politics.

Pennsylvania and Ohio have gone Democratic. Only yesterday they were saying the old party is dead.

GOOD WORDS FOR JUDGE HARRIS.

The appointment of Judge Harris to the vacancy on the Superior Bench, has been met with entire satisfaction by all. We know that our people are entitled to be elected and we feel like calling him "Our Judge"—as he is from our Assembly district—well known by us and greatly respected. On one occasion while prosecuting attorney during the trial of a criminal case, when Mr. Harris discovered the evidence insufficient to convict, he arose and addressed the Court, saying "I am satisfied in my own mind that the defendant is innocent of the crime. While I represent a prosecuting attorney's office, I do not believe in persecuting. The district attorney represents all the people and when he discovers a person is innocent, it is his duty, to say so, notwithstanding feeling or public sentiment. I move this case be dismissed." Just words and acts by Mr. Harris entitle him to this exalted position and as he will continue to climb he will receive the support of the people of San Leandro. Success to you Judge Harris and may your "skies be always sunny."—San Leandro Republican.

SEA MUSIC.
Is it a siren's spell
Draws o'er the blue a veil?
Freshening the dancing spray—
Changing the sounds so gay
To notes of woe?

Darkens the sky, and deep
Shadows o'er Minot creep;
Salty the mist so fine;
Thunders the dashing brine
With organ tones.

Dwells 'neath the emerald wave
Chantress from deep sea cave?
Tun'th thou to heart and mood
Symphonies when life is good;
When sad, a dirge?

Now on the horizon's line
Taints of the rainbow shine;
Stillness and peace and calm—
Breathes over all a balm
Like Paradise.

The white sea gull rests,
Content on thy blue breast;
So may thy songs to me
Teach trust and love, O Sea?

Where are thy songs, O Sea?
Dear is thy melody.
Thy listening child I hide
To thy ebbing tide,
To worship thee.

What dost thou really tell
In thy morn's madrigal?
When breaks the day in gold,
Thinning the rock so bold;
Silvery thy song.

Now Chant and Psalmody,
Then softest lullaby
With a sweet hush—and rest—
Like mother crooning on her breast
Her sleeping babe.

Fragrant thy morning wave,
Tempting in bath to lave.
Azure and clear—the spray
Drifting in foam away,
With murmuring song.

CHANTICLEER.

Darkness is subsiding,
Glistening stars are hiding.
Yet e'er the blushing Dawn
Illumes the face of Morn.
With clarion note of praise,
Rifting the misty haze,
The Courier of the Sun
Wakes him, his course to run,
For far and near rings pure and clear,
The piping notes of Chanticleer.

In the trees and hedge,
In the grass and sedge
The insect world awakes,
And off the dewdrop shakes.
Awake, sleeping birds,
Awake, drovary herd,
See the day doth break,
All the world's awake.

For far and near rings pure and clear,
The piping notes of Chanticleer.

How cheerfully he talks;
Off with his queen he strolls,
Off she their brood enfolds
'Neath the mother wing;
He—sentry and king.
None so dutiful,
None so Rachel.

When far and near rings pure and clear
The piping notes of Chanticleer.

How proudly he walks,
How cheerfully he talks;
Off with his queen he strolls,
Off she their brood enfolds
'Neath the mother wing;
He—sentry and king.
None so dutiful,
None so Rachel.

When far and near rings pure and clear
The piping notes of Chanticleer.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY

ELABORATE AFFAIR FOR DEBUTANTE

SEVERAL HUNDRED GUESTS AT-TEND THE RECEPTION
FOR MISS WALSH.

The reception given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Walsh for their daughter, Miss Marian Walsh, was the most brilliant society event of the month.

The beautiful home had been converted into a fairyland of flowers and light and an army of decorators under the direction of Misses Glover and Song, arranged many of the attractive effects in oak foliage and roses.

The hallway was banked with tall woodwardia ferns and manzanita berries were clustered amid the greens. Upstairs an orchestra concealed behind a tall screen of ferns, played during the evening, and downstairs in the spacious dance room the Hawaiian quintette played for the dancing. In this room American Beauty roses were used with artistic effect.

The reception rooms presented a beautiful picture, with huge knots of yellow chrysanthemums and a dodo of rich oak leaves. In the drawing room white carnations were used, and bouquets of American Beauty roses and pale-hued carnations were in harmony with the delicate coloring of the walls. The billiard room was decorated with white chrysanthemums and the dining room was trimmed with festoons of grape vine, red berries and the brilliant red carnations.

The elaborate supper was served at small, circular tables in the immense marquee erected on the lawn in the rear of the house.

The unique feature of this improvised tent was natural rockery, occupying one entire side, and the waterfall banked on either side with ferns and brilliant salvia, made a beautiful addition to the tent room. The walls of the tent were trellised with smilax and geraniums and immense globes of the brilliant blossoms and foliage were suspended from the ceiling in the center of the tent. Streamers of red tulip lanterns from corner to corner, and the scene was lighted with red-globed incandescent lights and red candelabra.

The grounds were lighted with hundreds of electric lights, and Chinese lanterns were strung across the paths.

Several hundred guests enjoyed the delightful affair. Mrs. Walsh received 100 guests, assisted by her daughter and a score of friends.

Mrs. Walsh wore a beautiful costume of cream lace, while Miss Walsh was gowned in a dainty creation of white lace, and carried lilies of the valley.

CATARRH IS MORE THAN A BAD COLD—IT IS A DEEP-SEATED BLOOD DISORDER.

Catarrh is not merely a stubborn or protracted cold, as some people seem to think, but it is a deep-seated and dangerous blood disorder, more generally affecting the body than any other disease. Hardly any part is exempt from the trouble; it attacks the head, throat, stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, lungs and other members, and its effects often break down and completely undermine the health.

Like all blood diseases, Catarrh comes from poisons and impurities accumulating in the blood. The refuse matter of the body, which should be expelled as nature intends, is left in the system because of a sluggish condition of the different parts. Then the blood, as it circulates through the body, collects and absorbs the foul matter, becoming polluted and unfit for properly nourishing the system. When the blood is in this unhealthy condition the contracting of a cold starts the secretions by irritating all the delicate linings and inner tissues of the body. Thus the mistaken idea that Catarrh is a severe cold or a disease of the mucous membranes which can be cured with sprays, washes, lotions, etc., is formed. Catarrh is always worse in winter because of the cold, damp, changing weather, which makes every one more susceptible to cold; but it is in no sense a disease that is dependent on climatic conditions for its real cause.

It has more disgusting and unpleasant symptoms than any other disease, besides being a very serious disorder. There is a constant ringing and buzzing noise in the ears, a thin watery discharge from the nostrils, headaches are frequent, filthy, stringy matter drops back in the throat requiring constant hawking and spitting, and often much effort to dislodge it, the breath has an offensive odor, slight fever comes and goes, and gradually the entire health becomes affected. So thoroughly does the blood become filled with the catarrhal matter that the kidneys and bladder are diseased, chronic dyspepsia or Catarrh of the stomach develops, appetite and digestion are weakened and the disease often settles in some vital part, usually the lungs because of the constant passage of poisoned blood through them, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption, the most fatal of all diseases.

To expect to cure Catarrh with sprays, washes, inhalations, tobacco remedies and such treatment is a great mistake—it is treating the effect instead of the cause. This treatment does good in as much as it gives temporary relief and comfort to the sufferer, but is in no way curative, because it does not reach the real seat of the trouble, which is in the blood and while experimenting with such things the patient is losing valuable time and allowing the disease to make dangerous headway.

To cure Catarrh permanently the blood must be thoroughly purified and the system cleansed of all poisons and at the same time strengthened and built up. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It attacks the disease at its head, goes down to the very bottom of the trouble and makes a complete and lasting cure. S. S. S. removes every particle of the catarrhal poison from the blood, making this vital stream pure and fresh. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, the head is cleared, the hawking and spitting cease, every symptom disappears, the constitution is built up and vigorous health restored. S. S. S. also tones up the stomach, aids the digestion and acts as a fine tonic to the entire system, and being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks will not injure the system in any way. Catarrh sufferers are invited to write our medical department for book treating on this disease and ask for any medical advice they wish, no charge for either.

APPOINTMENT OF JUDGE HARRIS

WHAT THE COUNTY PAPERS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THE NEW JUDGE.

When the word came here Tuesday morning that Governor Pardie had consummated his long deferred action and appointed T. W. Harris to the judgeship vacated by the death of Judge W. E. Green there was great rejoicing among Mr. Harris' host of friends here.—Pleasanton Times.

EXCELLENT APPOINTMENT.
Governor Pardie made an excellent appointment on Monday when he named T. W. Harris of Pleasanton to succeed the late Judge Green on the Superior bench. The vacancy created by the death of the late Judge Green was consummated last Wednesday, when he took his oath of office in the presence of the Bar Association of Alameda county and assumed the seat in the criminal division of the Superior Court which he has been without a Judge for some months.—Fruitvale Progress.

Governor Pardie on Monday appointed T. W. Harris to the position of Superior bench of this county made vacated by the death of Judge W. E. Green.

Very little surprise was expressed over the appointment anywhere in the county, as it had come to be regarded as a purely technical matter, the only question being as to whom the chief executive would select for the judicial honor, with many predictions made in favor of the Pleasanton man. Shortly after Judge Green passed away, the letter of Mr. Pardie was sent to the Governor signed by the four Superior judges and nearly all the members of the Oakland Bar Association. It was believed that the Governor would not only recognize the qualifications of Mr. Harris for the place, and made the appointment as stated above.—Livermore Herald.

RUSSIAN TROUBLE CLOUD ON FINANCIAL HORIZON

Stock Market Shows Some Improvement--Business Conditions Continue to be Promising.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The principal cloud upon the financial horizon is, of course, the Russian situation. Some ray of hope was created by the concessions to popular demands recently extorted from the Czar, but at the moment even this bright spot is dimmed by the condition of chaos which seems to exist throughout Russia. The uniformity of the uprising comes somewhat as a surprise to those who thought that Russian ignorance and lack of a free press prevented political organization. Evidently there is more system in the present uprising than was at first supposed possible. What the outcome will be no one can determine at this writing, for it is quite certain that while some sections of Russia may be ready for a measure of self-government there are other large sections totally unprepared for such a movement. Amid the conflicting ideals and aspirations of 130,000,000 of population of varying degrees of intelligence, of different races and different creeds, the task of political reconstruction is indeed a gigantic one, and one that will require all the power and political sagacity of a man as keen as Premier De Witte.

THE NEW DECREE.
Unfortunately the disturbance has gone so far that it will be extremely difficult to reconcile conflicting parties into accepting even the new degree of freedom which the Czar has granted. Between anarachists on the one hand and conservatists on the other there is a vast gulf, seething with different shades of political opinions, and it will be marvelous indeed if weeks and months of political disturbance must not be endured before anything approaching internal harmony is reached. Much depends on the loyalty of the army and the police to the government. If these succeed in repressing disorder a solution will come quickly, promptly. There is a form of a republic, not even a form of a republic, but a form of government could not insure stability in the present state of Russian ignorance. The most feasible plan would seem to be some partial decentralization of power, permitting a larger degree of local self-government without endangering the unity of the Empire, which at times seems almost threatened. Needless to say, the Russian situation causes considerable anxiety at Paris, Berlin and other important European centers, where any grave injury to Russian credit might easily have serious consequences. Fortunately the United States is but slightly interested in Russia, and, though in directly we should feel the effect of any blow that fell upon the European markets from this source, the Russian loan has been indefinitely postponed for the reason that it could not be placed under present conditions except at perhaps an unnecessary sacrifice. Meanwhile there are rumors of a large forthcoming Japanese loan. A large portion of this will undoubtedly be for refunding purposes. Yet in view of the large borrowings of both Russia and Japan on account of the war these additional demands are hardly welcome, when it is remembered that both countries are already carrying a very severe financial strain.

STOCK MARKET.
The stock market has shown some improvement in tone, chiefly as the result of a diminished tendency for the local money market, and has been exporting the most week as was partially expected, and the position of the Associated Banks was also better than calculated upon. It is premature, however, to look for any sustained relief in the money market just now. Gold exports may have been temporarily retarded by an increase in the supply of foreign coins, but the market is still such as to require close watching. A squeeze in money would be very unwelcome in certain quarters just now, and the throwing over of weekly margined accounts would probably produce unpleasant consequences. It is on those who are carrying too much sail who have reason to fear.

CURED CONSUMPTION.
Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kans., writes: "I have had lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. "We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horsehound Syrup, and it cured him. He had been sick six years ago. Since then we have never kept a doctor in the house. "We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c. 50c and $1.00. Sold by Washburn's drug store, corner Tenth and Washington Sts.

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband, but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they make her "feel like a different person," so they all say, and their husbands say so too!

TAKES TIME
Some Years Getting There and What Happened Then.

The poison in coffee does not always work its mischief swiftly, sometimes fastens its hold upon the victim by slow degrees that are not noticeable for a while. But once it begins, the day will surely come when the coffee drinker will be "up against it" and must have relief.

A lady writes from Cal:

"We were great coffee drinkers in our home, using it at every meal and frequently drinking it in the evening with friends, and it was not until after the lapse of years that we began to realize that it was doing us harm."

"My symptoms were so bad, although my health suffered in many ways, but my husband became afflicted with a most painful stomach trouble. He could not assimilate his food properly and everything he ate gave him great distress. We were slow to suspect the truth, but we now see that it was caused by the use of coffee."

"At last he determined to quit using coffee altogether, and like a good wife I did so, too. We worried along for a month without any hot table beverage, till one day a friend happened to say to me 'I am using Postum Food Coffee now and feel so much better.' I told her that we had tried it and did not care for it, and she said it must have been because it wasn't properly prepared. So I bought a package and prepared it strictly according to directions. We were astonished and delighted at the result."

"We have been using Postum Coffee for a year, now, and I rejoice to be able to tell you that it has cured my husband of his dyspepsia. This is a statement that does not seem to have the significance it ought to have. If I could make you understand how little his suffering used to be, you would realize what a deliverance Postum wrought or him."

"My own health has also greatly improved and the credit for all must be given to Postum." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

SPKE ON RUSSIA.

ALAMEDA, November 8.—The Adelphi Club was addressed yesterday by Mr. Edward H. Franklin, lecturer on Russian Music. The lecture was a most interesting one. A number of Russian songs were sung and Russian airs played on a number of different instruments.

GRAU'S TRIAL.

ALAMEDA, November 8.—The trial of Charles Grau, who succeeded in getting L. E. Holm to come up before Judge Cone on next Tuesday morning.

Grau is very eccentric and tries to explain his actions by claiming that other people have done the same things without being punished. He will be represented by Fred St. Sure.

BOY IMPROVING.

ALAMEDA, November 8.—Clarence Beckhouse, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Franklin, of San Antonio avenue, is much improved and no serious results are feared from his injury.

Young Beckhouse was riding his bicycle to school yesterday morning when he suddenly threw over his handlebars. He fell on his head and at the time it was thought he had fractured his skull.

REMAINS AS AGENT.

ALAMEDA, November 8.—Despite the reports that A. M. Prosser has resigned his position as ticket agent at Chestnut station, Mr. Prosser is still in the position and states that he has not any desire to leave. He is not popular with the railroad, however, and the cause for his resignation is not known.

Mr. Prosser does not know the person who reported to the company that he was disgruntled with the station.

The old man addressed the following letter to his son, who was about to stand a civil-service examination for a government position:

"Dear Bill—I ain't a bit o' use if you a'go' up agin that civil-service business, in my opinion, it's a one-sided affair altogether. Why, they'll turn you down if you don't know richetic, an' they'll even rule you out if you're a little short on geography an' spelin'. Take my advice an' stick to yer trade of lawyer before a jury of yer peers, an' when that falls you kin go to teachin' school."—Atlanta Constitution.

BERKELEY. TWELFTH STREET AT CLAY

HEAR OF FATAL TRAGEDY BEFORE IT HAPPENED

Oakland Has Rumor of Crime in San Francisco Before it Really Occurs.

An hour before Milton Franklin Andrews killed the woman who was his partner in crime and took his own life in San Francisco Monday evening a rumor gained currency in Oakland that the double tragedy which was later enacted had actually taken place.

Nobody attempts to explain the phenomenon, it such is it, but it is a matter of record that it was reported at no police headquarters and at the newspaper offices before 7 o'clock that Andrews had killed the woman and himself. At 8 o'clock an hour later the double crime was committed in San Francisco.

Long before the details surrounding the dwelling on McAllister street in San Francisco while Andrews and the woman had taken refuge, the rumor of the crime was spreading in Oakland. There was hardly a policeman or newsman in Oakland who had not heard of the sudden ending of the couple and it was common property on the streets and the principal topic of conversation. When it was learned yesterday morning that the double crime was actually committed, an hour after it had been talked about, the rumor was spreading among those who had heard the rumor.

Whether it was telegraph or some other agency that started the rumor, no one pretends to say, but police and citizens are today wondering how it all came about and they are not attempting to offer explanation.

SAN FRANCISCO Nov. 8.—Many remarkable features are being brought out of the tragedy which ended the lives of Milton Franklin Andrews and his companion Nilda D. Perlis Monday night at their lodgings in this city.

When the police from the State, trailing back and forth across the city, continued into the faraway flats under the Southern Cross, had failed to find the man who was accused of three murders, a keen-eyed and nimble-witted little woman in San Francisco caught the clew that led to the undoing of the fleeing pair. Upon Mrs. M. D. Hornbeck, who helps her husband in a modest grocery and bakery at 713 McAllister street, falls the main burden of success in clinching the know edge that carried the police detectives to the Andrews' hiding place where the corner of a room was today wondering how it all came about and they are not attempting to offer explanation.

WOMAN'S WIT—That a clever woman's ready intuition was responsible for the direction to the police is due to another woman's over anxiety to conceal her real self from the world.

It was perhaps a case of setting a woman to catch a woman although the retiring little shopkeeper had slight idea when she evolved her plan that it

J. A. ESTUDILLO PASSES AWAY AT HAYWARD

He Had Been a Resident of Alameda County For Over Sixty Five Years.

SAN LEANDRO, November 8.—J. Antone Estudillo, one of the family of that name who forty years ago owned the territory and natural resources now comprised in Eden township, died at the home of his sister Mrs. Cushing in Hayward, on A street, Tuesday. He went to his sister's home to visit for a few days. He had a complication of diseases.

He was over 74 years of age, and had been a resident of Alameda county for 65 years, though he was born in San Diego.

The Estudillo House at San Leandro was named after the famous family.

Bouton murder might be Andrews and his petroide beauty.

MRS. HORNBECK'S STORY

That the woman was not what she had represented herself to be is known to the world. My husband is away at a great deal on business and I become well acquainted with many of our customers. In any neighborhood the arrival of new people attracts attention. I suppose I have my bump of curiosity. I should have been allured in course of time, but they would not let me into the house.

It is where Nilda D. Perlis made her fatal mistake. For so it does not ring the room.

When I entered the room Monday night I saw a man's body lying on the floor. I was dumbfounded. I thought he was in the house all the time. None of us ever heard a thing suspicious. Of course he might have had lodgings somewhere else, but that is not likely. I have the large purchases of food which the man made. I want to clear up another error. Detective Gibson said he saw the woman leave a signal from the back window of Burke's room the last time that he was in the room. That night Detective Gibson thought he saw a woman's movement on a clothesline which had been hanging there all day and which might have deceived the detective while he was in the room. I saw the signal in the rear. There was a time for her to signal from the clothesline very quickly after Burke had been shut up.

Murder at police headquarters yesterday afternoon gave the first explanation of the family's connection with the case and of the circumstances Monday night when the police roared into the house.

When Burke called Monday afternoon and told me that the police suspected that Andrews and the woman were stopping there. They had watched the house and had seen a man's form moving about in the upstairs room while the woman was sitting in the front window. Mrs. Meagher requested me to come up until I returned home from work before anything was done.
